

Good News Survey

1. If money were not an issue, what would you want to do with your life?
2. What is an issue in the world that deeply concerns you?
3. What is your faith background, and to what extent do you believe in it or follow it today?
4. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
5. Jesus said He came to bring the gospel, which means "good news." What do you think was good about His news?

Good News Survey

1. If money were not an issue, what would you want to do with your life?
2. What is an issue in the world that deeply concerns you?
3. What is your faith background, and to what extent do you believe in it or follow it today?
4. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
5. Jesus said He came to bring the gospel, which means "good news." What do you think was good about His news?

Good News Survey

1. If money were not an issue, what would you want to do with your life?
2. What is an issue in the world that deeply concerns you?
3. What is your faith background, and to what extent do you believe in it or follow it today?
4. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
5. Jesus said He came to bring the gospel, which means "good news." What do you think was good about His news?

Good News Survey

1. If money were not an issue, what would you want to do with your life?
2. What is an issue in the world that deeply concerns you?
3. What is your faith background, and to what extent do you believe in it or follow it today?
4. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
5. Jesus said He came to bring the gospel, which means "good news." What do you think was good about His news?